

OAK HARBOR – 1976 - UNITED STATES BICENTENNIAL SCROLL

The Oak Harbor 1976 United States Bicentennial Celebration was held July 4, 1976 at Veteran's Memorial Park. At that ceremony, a scroll was signed, with the intent of it being opened in 50 years time at the United States 250th Birthday. On July 4, 2026, the scroll is to be unveiled at the re-dedication of the Gazebo where the 1976 celebration took place.

The scroll is enclosed in a 2" by 21" cardboard tube. This tube is currently (2010) being held in the Oak Harbor Municipal Building safe.

The Gazebo, built in June, 1976, was moved from Veteran's Memorial Park to Flat Iron Park on September 10, 1988. The Gazebo is prominently placed on the west end of this park and seen as soon as one enters the Village on State Route 105.

July 4, 1976